Subject : Appointment of Estate Officer

In the recent past, in some cases the employees of Sainik Schools have not vacated the accommodation allotted by the schools after retirement or removal /dismissal from service after the award of penalty. In such cases, as per provisions of Rule 10.23 of Sainik Schools Society Rules & Regulations, penal rent amounting to twice the market rent is to be charged on grounds of unauthorized occupation. Those employees are also liable to forcible eviction from the premises by invoking the provisions of Public Premises (Eviction of Unauthorized occupants) Act, 1971.

2. According to the provisions of Public Premises (Eviction of Unauthorised occupants) Act, 1971, action against such employees may be taken by an Estate Officer appointed by a duly constituted authority. Keeping in view the above provisions, it has been decided that all Registrars of Sainik Schools are hereby appointed as Estate Officer. In case the post of Registrar is vacant, the person looking after the duties and responsibilities of Registrar will be treated as Estate Officer.

3. Principal of the concerned Sainik School will be the appellate authority in such cases.

4. This issues with the approval of Joint Secretary (Trg.).
